Acknowledgments

This volume presents the results of the international research project “The Reception and Application of the Encyclical Pascendi as Mirrored by the Reports of the Diocesan Bishops and the Superiors of the Religious Orders (1908-1914)”, which was carried out in cooperation between the Goethe University of Frankfurt, respectively the Johannes Gutenberg University of Mainz, and the University Ca’ Foscari of Venice from 2013 until 2016. We are grateful for the funding of the project and of the present publication by the German Research Council (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft). It would have been impossible to pursue the project without the collaboration of the European and American colleagues who are specialists for the history of the modernist crisis in Roman Catholicism and who have contributed to this volume. We are grateful for the support of many ecclesiastical archives, in first place to the Archivio Segreto Vaticano with its prefect, H. Exc. the most Rev. Mons. Sergio Pagano, B, and to the Archivio della Congregazione per la Dottrina della Fede with its director, the Rev. Mons. Alejandro Cifres. Dott. Alejandro M. Dieguez of the Archivio Segreto Vaticano has been most helpful in identifying the relevant material for this study. The practical coordination of the project lay with Dr. Raffaella Perin who undertook extensive archival studies for the project and helped with the editing of the volume. Friederike Ockert from Johannes Gutenberg University of Mainz assisted in preparing the necessary translations and our colleague Charles Talar helped with the corrections. All errors that remain are ours. We are finally grateful to Edizioni Ca’ Foscari for the publication of this volume.
